

Sustainable Solutions: Spring Updates from Kupenda

Dear friend,

In this month's newsletter, you'll learn more about what Kupenda is doing to empower communities in sustainable ways. We are now holding agricultural technique trainings for youth and parents affected by disability not only to provide them with nutritious food, but also empowerment and independence. These trainings will benefit children like John, a young boy who was abandoned by his father and isolated from his peers. Now, with Kupenda's support, John is an educated and well-connected young man!

These sustainable solutions are fueled by supporters like you!

In love and gratitude,

Cynthia Bauer

Kupenda's Founder and CEO
