

4 Stories of Hope: Autumn Updates from Kupenda

Dear friend,

In this month's newsletter, you will learn how Kupenda's programs are providing hope to mothers like Zawadi, who are raising children with disabilities on their own, and children like Martin, who had to wait until he was 10 years old before he could start his education.

You'll also hear a video update from our Kenyan Director who, after a severe cancer relapse last year, has recently received scans with no evidence of disease!

Finally, you'll learn about the importance of early intervention and education for children with disabilities and how Kupenda is working hard to ensure policies and school systems in Kenya support these services.

You are an important part of this life-changing work! We couldn't do it without you!

In love and gratitude,

Cynthia Bauer

Kupenda's Founder and CEO
